STATEMENT BY THE CRL RIGHTS COMMISSION EXTENDING ITS WELL WISHES TO THE NAZARATH
BAPTIST CHURCH DURING THEIR HOLY PILGRIMAGE

The Commission for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Cultural, Religious and Linguistic Communities extends its best wishes to the Nazareth Baptist Church, popularly known as the Shembe Church, as it undertakes its annual sacred pilgrimage.

This is a profoundly spiritual journey marked by personal reflection, earnest prayer, heartfelt worship, fellowship, spiritual renewal, and communion with the Almighty.

The Commission encourages all the congregants to draw strength and inspiration from this period, trusting that it will empower their future endeavours in the service of the Church and the nation at large.

Furthermore, the Commission also urges all government agencies and departments to actively support the Church members in their observance of this important event.
