STATEMENT BY THE CRL RIGHTS COMMISSION WISHING MUSLIMS WELL ACROSS THE WORLD ON THE JOYOUS OCCASION OF EID

The Commission for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Cultural, Religious and Linguistic Communities (CRL Rights Commission) extends its warmest greetings and best wishes to all Muslims in South Africa and across the world on the joyous occasion of Eid.

Eid is a time of deep spiritual significance, marked by gratitude, prayer, compassion, generosity, and unity. It is a sacred occasion that reminds us of the enduring values of faith, sacrifice, humility, and service to humanity.

As a constitutional institution entrusted with promoting and protecting cultural, religious, and linguistic rights, the CRL Rights Commission recognises and values the important contribution of the Muslim community to the social, moral, and cultural fabric of our nation. The observance of Eid enriches our democracy by affirming the principles of dignity, mutual respect, peaceful coexistence, and social cohesion.

On this blessed occasion, the Commission encourages all South Africans to continue embracing our diversity as a source of strength and to work together in building a society founded on justice, compassion, understanding, and human solidarity.

May this Eid bring peace to your hearts, joy to your homes, and blessings to your families.
